Employers must make accommodations to disabled applicants and employees where the accommodation does not impose an undue hardship on the employer.

Under Michigan law only, disabled employees and applicants may request an accommodation of their disability by notifying the company in writing of the need for accommodation with 182 days of the date the disabled individual knows or should know that an accommodation is needed. This requirement does not apply to an individual's right under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Failure to properly notify the company may preclude any claim that the employer failed to accommodate the disabled individual.

I also authorize you to release any information requested by any of my prospective or subsequent employers without any obligation to give me written notice of such disclosure. I hereby release you and them from any liability whatsoever as a result of any such inquiries and disclosures and this release from liability does not waive or prohibit an individual from filing a charge of discrimination under the laws enforced by the EEOC. I agree that any false information in support of my application may subject me to discharge at any time during the period of my employment.

I agree that either party may terminate the employment relationship, with or without cause, at any time, and I further agree that this arrangement may only be altered in writing directed to me personally and signed by the president of the firm.
